Positive and Negative Correlations

Example	Positive correlation	Negative correlation	Absence of correlation
A: Household income and savings.
B: Foot size and number of spelling mistakes in an English test.
C: Forest surface area and milk consumption.
D: Price and demand for a good.
E: Age and health expenditure.
F: A country's wealth and education spending.
G: Percentage of males in a population and food consumption.
H: Number of storks and births.

Positive and Negative Correlations