

Je connais l'histoire de l'Afrique du Sud

1 Réponds aux questions suivantes en une phrase.

1. Qui était Nelson Mandela ?
2. Qu'est-ce que l'apartheid ?

Je sais conjuguer un verbe au prétérit simple

2 Mets les verbes entre parenthèses au prétérit simple.

Rugby is the game which (unite) South Africa. Before 1995, black people (not play) rugby. They (not like) the all-white South African rugby team. Football (be) the game favoured by most blacks. But in the days before the final of the Rugby World Cup, blacks (begin) to support the Springboks. In the minutes before the match, Mandela (tell) the rugby team he (be) proud of them. Mandela (take) his place in the stand and something magical (happen) South Africa (become) world champions.

Je sais poser des questions

3 À l'aide des éléments suivants, formule des questions.

1. Who / the first settlers?
2. Who / Matt Damon / play / in Invictus?
3. What / Mandela / say to Francois Pienaar?
4. When / Mandela / win the election?

Je connais mes verbes réguliers et irréguliers au prétérit

4 Retrouve les verbes au prétérit dans la chaîne ci-dessous, puis complète le tableau.

told divided played fought joined thought launched went did were watched took won

Verbes réguliers	prétérit
	infinitif
Verbes irréguliers	prétérit	told
	infinitif	tell

Je connais le vocabulaire de l'unité

5 Complète les mots fléchés et trouve l'expression mystère.

ACROSS →

1. A system of racial segregation in South Africa.
2. A synonym for "fight".
3. A country's official song.
4. To move to a place and make it your home.

DOWN ↓

1. A meal prepared on a barbecue in South Africa.
2. To come together in a group.
3. To start a project or an activity.
4. A synonym for "liberty".

Expression mystère :

.....

Help: Nelson Mandela's clan name.